

WANTED

ROUNDUP

THE GIFT OF GIVING

This holiday season, there's no better way to spread the joy than to give to charity in someone's honor. Here are 14 ideas, from $3 to $39,000.

BY KATE ROCKWOOD

$3 for a student workbook in Darfur
(Catholic Relief Services, crs.org)

$12 for 20 pounds of multipurpose soap (Oxfam, oxfamamerica.org)

$20 for supplies for a disaster/rescue mobile unit for needy animals (ASPCA, aspc.org)

$25 for a "No Mo' Chemo" Party to celebrate completion of one young patient's chemotherapy (St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, stjude.org)

$50 for 50 trees to be planted in Brazil's Atlantic Forest (The Nature Conservancy, nature.org)

$75 for 200 dictionaries for students in Africa (Books for Africa, booksforafrica.org)

$100 for one month of art supplies for a preschool for Chinese orphans (Half the Sky, halfthesky.org)

A new Hermès scarf; the Quadrige II ($375, hermes.com) is so punchy.
—MIRIAM LAHAGE, GENERAL MANAGER, EBAY FASHION

A $25 gift card to Best Buy. I'd like to get a DVD or maybe a couple of CDs, but I'd like to pick them out myself. Also, I want to get my ears pierced because I want a change in my look for 2011. The person giving the gift wouldn't necessarily have to physically pierce my ears themselves.
—ANDREW MASON, CEO, Groupon

CAMERAS

Capture holiday moments with das Beste in image sensing with Leica's D-Lux 5. With its pared-down retro design and features like maximum aperture, the storied German brand's latest is sure to excite tech-geek dads and hip photography buffs alike. ($799, us.leica-camera.com)

*****

$120 for a sheep for a needy family in a developing country (Heifer International, heifer.org)

$150 for one front door (Habitat for Humanity, habitat.org)

$500 for the safe delivery of a newborn in Guatemala (Project Concern International, projectconcern.org)

$1,000 for one month of housing and basic needs for a woman and her children escaping abuse in the U.S. (Global Giving, globalgiving.org)

$600 for one teacher's annual salary at an Afghan or Pakistani school for girls (Central Asia Institute, ikat.org)

$2,500 for an operation on one child with a congenital heart condition (Children's HeartLink, childrensheartlink.org)

$39,000 for a health clinic in Sierra Leone (World Vision, worldvision.org)

All charities featured have received three or four stars from Charity Navigator for organizational efficiency and capacity, except for Catholic Relief Services, which, as a religious ministry, does not file federal financial disclosures.

A Korin takoyaki pan ($24.90, korin.com). I just got back from Japan, where we had amazing takoyaki [octopus fritters]. It made me want to replicate it at home. I also think there may be many other uses that we will discover for the pan at Alinea. —GRANT ACHATZ, CHEF, ALINEA AND NEXT

PeakPilates's Total Workout System ($5,345, peakpilates.com). Pilates provides results that give me confidence to stand 6 feet tall, while strutting in my 3-inch heels. —JULIE LEE, SVP, VEVO